Composing differences with intellect and decent purpose

Selected Transcript of John F. Kennedy's Address before the American Newspaper Publishers Association,

April 27, 1961:

“The very word "secrecy" is repugnant in a free and open society; and we are as a people inherently and historically opposed to secret societies, to secret oaths and to secret proceedings. We decided long ago that the dangers of excessive and unwarranted concealment of pertinent facts far outweighed the dangers which are cited to justify it. Even today, there is little value in opposing the threat of a closed society by imitating its arbitrary restrictions. Even today, there is little value in insuring the survival of our nation if our traditions do not survive with it. And there is very grave danger that an announced need for increased security will be seized upon by those anxious to expand its meaning to the very limits of official censorship and concealment.

That I do not intend to permit to the extent that it is in my control. And no official of my Administration, whether his rank is high or low, civilian or military, should interpret my words here tonight as an excuse to censor the news, to stifle dissent, to cover up our mistakes or to withhold from the press and the public the facts they deserve to know. For we are opposed around the world by a monolithic and ruthless conspiracy that relies on covert means for expanding its sphere of influence--on infiltration instead of invasion, on subversion instead of elections, on intimidation instead of free choice, on guerrillas by night instead of armies by day. It is a system which has conscripted vast human and material resources into the building of a tightly knit, highly efficient machine that combines military, diplomatic, intelligence, economic, scientific and political operations. Its preparations are concealed, not published. Its mistakes are buried not headlined. Its dissenters are silenced, not praised. No expenditure is questioned, no rumor is printed, no secret is revealed. Without debate, without criticism, no Administration and no country can succeed-- and no republic can survive.

That is why the Athenian lawmaker Solon decreed it a crime for any citizen to shrink from controversy. And that is why our press was protected by the First (emphasized) Amendment-- the only business in America specifically protected by the Constitution-- not primarily to amuse and entertain, not to emphasize the trivial and sentimental, not to simply "give the public what it wants"--but to inform, to arouse, to reflect, to state our dangers and our opportunities, to indicate our crises and our choices, to lead, mold educate and sometimes even anger public opinion. This means greater coverage and analysis of international news-- for it is no longer far away and foreign but close at hand and local. It means greater attention to improved understanding of the news as well as improved transmission. And it means, finally, that government at all levels, must meet its obligation to provide you with the fullest possible information outside the narrowest limits of national security... And so it is to the printing press--to the recorder of mans deeds, the keeper of his conscience, the courier of his news-- that we look for strength and assistance, confident that with your help man will be what he was born to be: free and independent." Ike Eisenhower's Warning Of Military Expansion, 50 Years Later

"Until the latest of our world conflicts, the United States had no armaments industry. American makers of ploughshares could, with time and as required, make swords as well. But we can no longer risk emergency improvisation of national defense; we have been compelled to create a permanent armaments industry of vast proportions."

"In the councils of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military-industrial complex. The potential for the disastrous

Borderline Recruits Others to Lie and Distort

The BP (short for "Borderline Personality" or "Borderline Person") is likely to make extreme false allegations, distortions, and varied lies to defame and harm her or his former partner and other targets. The BP is also likely to involve many other people in the distortion campaign. Many are passive participants who will listen and believe the BP's lies. Others become actively involved in spreading them further. The target may find that there are dozens of people, many whom have never met him or her, who believe and repeat the lies of the BP.

London Paper Asserts C.I. A. Engineered the Coup in Greece

LONDON, Sunday, July 1—The Observer said today that it has found evidence that the Central Intelligence Agency engineered the 1967 military coup in Greece and is using secret knowledge of Premier George Papadopoulos's "wartime collaboration with the Nazis" to maintain control of the regime.

The Sunday newspaper said that at the Athens headquarters of the Joint United States Military Aid Assistance Group Mr. Papadopoulos is known among senior staff members as "the first C.I.A. agent to become premier of a European country."

Mr. Papadopoulos has now proclaimed himself Provisional President and declared Greece a republic.

The Observer's writer, Charles Foley, quoted an unidentified American military adviser in Athens as having said: "George gives good value because there are documents in Washington he wouldn't like let out."

Sent to the U. S.

The British paper said that the Greek secret service, built up after the 1945-49 civil war, was formed by the United States, and that, according to Andreas Papandreou, minister of state in charge of intelligence in the Government brought down by the coup, it “was in reality a financial and administrative appendage of the C.I.A.”

Mr. Papadopoulos, a former colonel, was among hundreds of secret-service agents sent to the United States for training, The Observer said. His antiCommunist credentials were stringently investigated at the time.

The newspaper said that comrade of Gen. George Grivas, wartime leader of an antiCommunist guerrilla organization, had confirmed reports that Mr. Papadopoulos had served as a captain in a security battalion organized by the Nazis to hold down Partisans during the war.

The current Government stand portraying Communism as Greece's only enemy and minimizing the German occupation “clearly reflects the dictator's concern at the danger that the gap in his official biography may some day be filled in,” The Observer said.

It said that the composition of the cabal of officers who carried out the 1967 coup suggested C.I.A. involvement. Four of the five officers, it said, were closely connected with United States forces or intelligence, and the fifth was brought in because of the armored units he commanded.

The newspaper also suggested that American influence at the time of the coup prevented the carrying out of a contingency. plan drawn up by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization for use if Greece faced war or revolution.

It is obvious that the colonialists keep composing, what they perceive as “differences” with the “others”, with malice an indecent purpose.

Their illegitimate “black” operations have, evidently, taken immense proportions. This means that they involve and influence, willingly or involuntarily, innumerable people.

It is, theoretically, impossible for any kind of illegitimate, international operations, like the “black ops” to reach the volume of a social movement, as, statistically, in any large number of civilians, few of them are going to be relatively more, moral, honest and decent human beings, than most of the others; and this minority would never contribute to any illegitimate operations which may cause any harm and/or death to other innocent civilians.

The fact that, for so many decades, the colonialists' illegitimate “black ops” continue to exist, according to my opinion, undoubtedly, proves the existence of an, inhumane, illegitimate and systematic, persecution, on behalf of the colonialists, against the societies' most moral, most honest and most decent minorities.

The victims of our contemporary colonialism, from what it seems, they are, literary, innumerable. And as such, they, involuntarily, know many colonialists' dirty secrets; illegitimate front organizations, criminals' names, criminal facts, committed monstrosities, etc. This knowledge, makes them, on behalf of the colonialists, unwanted, the least.

The best, according to my own subjective and arbitrary criteria, parts of our societies, most probably, remain unjustly, tortured; exiled; displaced; slandered; professionally, socially and financially marginalized; imprisoned; illegally persecuted; hostage; and/or their healths are intentionally harmed, or, even, they become murdered.

Anyone who supports, actively, and/or, passively, knowingly, and/or, by negligence, the colonialists by any way, e.g. by using, mobile and/or digital land, telephony, he, definitely, contributes in the progressive and permanent exclusion, from our societies, of what, literary, seems to drag those societies towards civilization.

The international community has despised the Eik Eisenhower's, and John Kennedy's prudent warnings, during 1961; and also, has despised, Robert Redford's, prudent warnings, during 1975.

The decline of our common civilization, between, 1961-1975 and 1975-2017, is, more or less, evidently, equivalent.

The perpetuation, on behalf of the international community, of despising prudence, most probably, is going to lead to the complete annihilation of our common civilization.
