Οι Έλληνες είναι παραδεδомένοι στο έλεος των αποικιοκρατών

Η χθεσινή μέρα, 18η Μαΐου 2017, σηματοδοτεί, νομίζω, τη χειρότερη θέση στην οποία έχει βρεθεί, το Ελληνικό Έθνος, σε ολόκληρη την μακραίωνη ιστορία του.

Η Ελλάδα, λόγω του, ορυκτού και άλλου, πλούτου που διαθέτει αποτελεί μια από τις πλουσιότερες χώρες της Ευρωπαϊκής Ηπείρου. Χθες, οι Έλληνες, εμμέσως, παραιτήθηκαν από τα Ανθρώπινα Δικαιώματά τους και τις Θεμελιώδεις Ελευθερίες τους, μέσω, της έμπρακτης άρνησής τους να αντιδράσουν (ειρηνικά, νόμιμα και δικαίως) στην υπερπήφιση, στην Ελληνική Βουλή, νομοθεσίας με την οποία παρατείνεται χρονικά, de jure, το de facto παράνομο καθεστώς αποικιοκρατικής απαγόρευσης της οικονομικής εκμετάλλευσης, εκ μέρους ημών των Ελλήνων, του πλούτου της Πατρίδας μας.

Ο συνδυασμός, της “αδυναμίας” διεκδίκησης των νόμιμων δικαιωμάτων μας, της ύπαρξης κρατικών χρεών η οποία, εν μέρει, αποτελεί προϊόν διεθνούς εγκλήματος, της αδυναμίας των υφιστάμενων διεθνών οργανισμών διαμεσολάβησης (Ο.Η.Ε., διεθνές ποινικό δικαστήριο της Χάγης, διεθνές δικαστήριο Ανθρωπίνων Δικαιωμάτων, κ.λπ.) να επιβάλλουν την τήρηση της διεθνούς νομιμότητας και μιας κατάστασης, οιονεί, “δυσχέρειας ελιγμών”, στην οποία έχουν, δυστυχώς, περιέλθει τα αδελφικά μας Έθνη, μας κρατούν υπό το έλεος των αποικιοκρατών.

Η δομή και η δυναμική της παρούσας κατάστασης

Τα “Happy Camps”

“The Trail of Tears began 170 years ago this week. We should recall it not as an aberration but as a logical outgrowth of an inhumane policy. And we should insist, in its memory, that Indian treaties and Indian sovereignty be honored.

When President Andrew Jackson ordered the Cherokee Nation off its Georgia homelands, the U.S. government signed a treaty with the Cherokees, promising them a $5 million payment upon successful removal west of the Mississippi.

The reader needs to understand that the Cherokee are a matriarchal society. Plainly put: the clan mother can trump the chief, women choose HER mate based on HIS cooking skills, and a man knew he was divorced if all his things were outside when he got home. So when the soldiers raped the women in the prison camps and on the Trail of Tears, they raped the tribe’s leaders as well. It was about taking away power. When the soldiers passed the women around like whiskey bottles raping them, it was about taking away power. When the soldiers scalped the women’s genitalia and wore their vaginas on their hats, it was about raping power to the most excruciating degree imaginable. I think it’s common knowledge how soldiers identified “leaders” in concentration camps and killed them, in order to keep the hostages under control. Still, one hundred and fifty-one years later nuns are raped and tortured...

Looking across the river today, one can only imagine the suffering that was taking place more than 150 years ago. Disrespectfully uprooted, homeless, they were embarking on a long journey in worn-out moccasins in the unforgiving dead of winter. Enduring river crossings, ice floes and relentless winds, they had only a blanket for warmth – if they were lucky. You imagine huddling around a fire, comforting your mother while she gets weaker and weaker ... wondering, as she, when the suffering would end, and whether she would even live to see it.

Two-thirds of the ill-equipped Cherokees were trapped between the ice-bound Ohio and Mississippi Rivers during January. Although suffering from a cold, Quatie Ross, the Chief’s wife, gave her only blanket to a child.

“Long time we travel on way to new land. People feel bad when they leave Old Nation. Women cry and make sad wails, Children cry and many men cry...but they say nothing and just put heads down and keep on go towards West. Many days pass and people die very much.”

During the roundup intimidation and acts of cruelty at the hands of the troops, along with the theft and destruction of property by local residents, further alienated the Cherokees. Finally, Chief Ross appealed to President Van Buren to permit the Cherokees to oversee their own removal. Van Buren consented, and Ross and his brother Lewis administered the effort. The Cherokees were divided into 16 detachments of about 1,000 each.

“I saw the helpless Cherokees arrested and dragged from their homes, and driven at the bayonet point into the stockades. And in the chill of a drizzling rain on an October morning I saw them loaded like cattle or sheep into six hundred and forty-five wagons and started toward the west....On the morning of November the 17th we encountered a terrific sleet and snow storm with freezing temperatures and from that day until we reached the end of the fateful journey on March the 26th 1839, the sufferings of the Cherokees were awful. The trail of the exiles was a trail of death. They had to sleep in the wagons and on the ground without fire. And I have known as many as twenty-two of them to die in one night of pneumonia due to ill treatment, cold and exposure...”

Private John G. Burnett
Captain Abraham McClellan’s Company,

General Scott was shocked during a trip to inspect Fort New Echota when he overheard members of The Guard say that they would not be happy until all Cherokee were dead. As a result, he issued meticulous orders on conduct and allowed actions during the action. Troops were to treat tribal members “with kindness and humanity, free from every strain of violence.” Each Cherokee was to receive meat and flour or corn regardless of age. Scott’s orders were disobeyed by most troops that were not directly under his Native Americans in the United States have historically had extreme difficulty with the use of alcohol. Problems continue among contemporary Native Americans; 12% of the deaths among Native Americans and Alaska Natives are alcohol-related. Use of alcohol varies by age, gender and tribe with women, and older women in particular, being least likely to be regular drinkers. Native Americans, particularly women, are more likely to abstain entirely from alcohol than the general US population. Frequency of use among Native Americans is generally less than the general population, but the quantity consumed when it is consumed is generally greater.

Alcohol and other drugs

It can be dangerous to drink if you take other drugs at the same time or close together. This includes prescription medications, medications you can buy at the pharmacy without a prescription, and illegal drugs.

The effects of combining alcohol with medications can depend on various factors, including:

- your age
- your body weight and type
- your general health
- how much you have drunk and the dose of medication you have taken
- how much food you have eaten
- how much you have slept
- your level of tolerance to the effects of alcohol and your medication.

Always check with your pharmacist or doctor first. Find out how safe it is to drink when you take any other drugs. Do not stop your medication suddenly, even just for the weekend, because:

- there will still be medication in your system, which may interact with the alcohol
- you risk a return of any symptoms that the medication is treating.

When you start a new medication or change the dose, it is usually best not to drink. If you do, the results can be unpredictable, and the alcohol may make your symptoms and/or side-effects worse. Once you have been on the medication for a while, check with your doctor to see if a glass or two of alcohol is OK.

The Truth About Water Fluoridation, to the effect that the idea of water fluoridation was brought to England from Russia by the Russian Communist Kreminoff.

This plan was to control the population in any given area through mass medication of drinking water supplies. By this method they could control the population in whole areas, reduce population by water medication that would produce sterility in women, and so on. In this scheme of mass-control, sodium fluoride occupied a prominent place.

"Repeated doses of infinitesimal amounts of fluoride will in time reduce an individual's power to resist domination, by slowly poisoning and narcotizing a certain area of the brain, thus making him submissive to the will of those who wish to govern him. [A convenient light lobotomy]

"When the Nazis under Hitler decided to go into Poland, both the German General Staff and the Russian General Staff exchanged scientific and military ideas, plans, and personnel, and the scheme of mass control through water medication was seized upon by the Russian Communists because it fitted ideally into their plan to communize the world.

"I was told of this entire scheme by a German chemist who was an official of the great IG Farben chemical industries and was also prominent in the Nazi movement at the time. I say this with all the earnestness and sincerity of a scientist who has spent nearly 20 years' research into the chemistry, biochemistry, physiology and pathology of fluoride--any person who drinks artificially fluorinated water for a period of one year or more will never again be the same person mentally or physically." CHARLES E. PERKINS, Chemist, 2 October 1954.

purpose is PHYSICAL CONTROL OF THE MIND. Everyone who deviates from the given norm can be SURGICALLY MUTILATED.

"The individual may think that the most important reality is his own existence, but this is only his personal point of view. This lacks historical perspective.

"Man does NOT HAVE THE RIGHT to develop his own mind. This kind of liberal orientation has great appeal. We must ELECTRICALLY CONTROL THE BRAIN. Some day armies and generals will be controlled by electric stimulation of the brain."

Dr. Jose M.R. Delgado Director of Neuropsychiatry Yale University Medical School

Congressional Record, No. 26, Vol. 118 February 24, 1974

(Author of "PHYSICAL CONTROL OF THE MIND" 1969)

Implanted human beings can be followed anywhere. Their brain functions can then be remotely monitored by supercomputers and even altered through the changing of frequencies.

Guinea-pigs in secret experiments have included prisoners, soldiers, mental patients, handicapped children, deaf and blind people, homosexuals, single women, the elderly, school children and any group of people considered "marginal" by the elite experimenters. The published experiences of prisoners in Utah State Prison, for example, are shocking to the conscience.

Every thought, reaction, hearing and visual observation causes a certain neurological potential, spikes, and patterns in the brain and its electromagnetic fields, which can now be decoded into thoughts, pictures and voices. Electromagnetic stimulation can therefore change a person's brainwaves and affect muscular activity, causing painful muscular cramps experienced as torture.

The NSA's electronic surveillance system can simultaneously follow and handle millions of people. Each of us has a unique bioelectrical resonance frequency in the brain, just like we have unique fingerprints. With electromagnetic frequency (EMF) brain stimulation fully coded, pulsating electromagnetic signals can be sent to the brain, causing the desired voice and visual effects to be experienced by the target. This is a form of electronic warfare. U.S. astronauts were implanted before they were sent into space so their thoughts could be followed and all their emotions could be registered 24 hours a day.

Not satisfied with controlling the masses through guns, taxes, mass media brainwashing and by dumbing down... the government is using its agencies such as the CIA or DARPA as cover sources for secret energy weapon mind control technology.

Those likely to be victimized by the technology have a number of traits. Are you?

- * Someone having high integrity, acting with conscience..?
- * Having alternative views..?
- * An awakened activist, seeing right through and exposing governmental corruption..?
- * Seeing things from a higher perspective..?

- Having these qualities, you could be perceived by your government as a threat to the advancement of their New World Order agenda. Consequently, you could be victimized through becoming one of the government's targeted individuals for mind control. Without giving your consent or even knowing that you're being targeted and manipulated, energy weapon mind control technology could be used to taint, discredit, impoverish, silence, subjugate or even kill you.
