Cancer The Forbidden Cures!

Disclaimer: I do not make any medical claims because I am not a medical doctor. I do not prescribe, neither directly, nor, indirectly, any medical procedure to any individual. I have a University education in Economics and as an educated citizen I am able and entitled to analyse the existing and public evidence/information about the existing scientific and tested cures of various illnesses and make personal and subjective opinions about these cures and publicize these opinions as such. The same applies with regard, to the perceived legitimacy, of the medical domain, the pharmaceutical domain, the political foundations, and the international rule of law. In cases of emergency and/or in cases of force majeure, I am entitled to resort to the actions and/or inaction according to the corresponding legislation. Regarding the Dr Royal Rife's and the George Lakhovsky's cures of the cancer disease, I, exclusively, propagate the existing and public information about these cures in order for the cancer-patients to use this information, exclusively, as a research material. And I am, morally and legally, obliged to contribute, by using legitimate means, in terminating any perpetration of a crime against humanity, in case such a monstrous crime, is actually being perpetrated and falls under my knowledge.

According to a recent research that I made in the Internet, there seem to be a demand by various citizens, each one for their own arbitrary/personal reasons, for having experimental versions of the “Rife Machine” and/or the “Bare/Rife Machine”.

Consequently, I am preparing one or more such devices for contributing to satisfy the above mentioned public demand.
