Questionnaire For The German Citizens – It Can Be Done Amigo

Dear German Ladies and Gentlemen,

- Does, anyone of you believe that, the Germany's and the Greece's, voluntary and honourable, joining of forces and resources and their becoming united, is going to make the British, happy?

- If, Not, then, why?

- From all the criminal means that the British command, which of them, they shall refrain from criminally using in order to avoid the German/Greek Union?

- Is there any natural-law that dictates that the British should be always happy?
