Genocide Versus Patriotism

Traditionally, the settler-colonizing organizational-forms they, systematically, apply genocidal-policies against the, usually, unsuspected indigenous populations. And for keeping these populations unsuspected, they assassinate, or otherwise neutralize, anyone who dares to publicly report on these genocides.

For their survival, the indigenous populations rely also, on institutionalized organizational forms of defence, like the GSG 9, and on their patriots.

The patriots, by, morally and legitimately, exercising the freedom of speech, they intellectually quasi “bite” the societies’ enemies in order to protect them from becoming genocided.

In case that, this intellectual struggle for survival and freedom is insufficient, then, far more painful “biting”, by legitimate institutions like the GSG 9, should be employed against those who hate themselves more than hating all the others.

Certainly, the colonizers, systematically, they deploy disorienting propaganda and even slander of all kinds, against the societies’ defenders. And certainly, the societies “bite” anyone who threatens their own, legitimate, defenders.
